

LETTER OF INTENT

Other than the short term programs listed in the handbook, the International Student Division is also in charge of pre-college programs, undergraduate and graduate programs, as well as exchanges and long-term programs. There are also other programs offered by individual departments or schools that are available. If you are interested in any of the aforementioned programs or would like to cooperate with International Student Division to create a short-term program, please fill out the Letter of Intent and contact us. For details, please see form below.
